

Iron Equipment Sales LLC - Announces Strong Recent Sales and Live Auction

Atlanta, Georgia Oct 12, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Iron Equipment Sales LLC is pleased to announce a high volume of equipment sales over the past several months and invites customers to its upcoming live auction on March 12, 2027, with options to attend in Atlanta or participate online.

Following several busy months, Iron Equipment Sales is thanking customers for their continued business and support. The upcoming auction will give buyers another opportunity to purchase equipment, with special offers available for both online and onsite purchases.

Your next machine. One big auction day.

On March 12, 2027, customers can join Iron Equipment Sales at 5255 Tulane Dr, Atlanta, GA 30336, or take part online at www.iron-equipment.com. The event brings together the convenience of online participation and the opportunity to visit the company's Atlanta location in person.

To mark the occasion, Iron Equipment Sales will offer two special promotions:

- 10% OFF online purchases made on March 12, 2027.
- FREE SHIPPING anywhere in the USA for customers who purchase equipment onsite during the event on March 12, 2027.

Customers attending the auction and purchasing at the Atlanta location will receive complimentary delivery of their purchased equipment anywhere in the United States. This offer gives buyers an opportunity to make their purchase in person and have their equipment delivered without shipping charges.

Online customers can participate from wherever they are and receive the discount on purchases made through the website on March 12, 2027.

Building on its strong sales activity in recent months, Iron Equipment Sales looks forward to welcoming returning customers and first-time buyers to the event. Customers are encouraged to contact the company ahead of March 12, 2027, for information about available equipment and auction participation.
