$60 Billion Pizza Story: The Documents Are on The Table

GumbyLeaks provides access to case filings, business history, and a documented chronology as a June 2027 trial date approaches.

New York City, New York Nov 23, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - What's behind a $60 billion pizza story? The answer involves more than a familiar restaurant name, and the documents provide details that go beyond the headlines.

The highly anticipated trial is scheduled for June 2027, barring any changes by the court. Court filings include claims by the plaintiffs seeking damages of up to $60 billion, while Fox Corporation disputes those claims. No findings of liability have been made, and the damages sought remain contested. The $60 billion figure is not a court award or an established financial obligation.

But what does the history behind the filings reveal about the business relationships and commercial interests involved?

The full story extends beyond a single headline. GumbyLeaks.com supplies a searchable document archive, business history, and case chronology involving Gumby Global Licensing and Fox Corporation.

“This isn't about a slice of the pie, this is about the WHOLE pie,” said Chance Hippler, Partner/Owner.
