Dea Lazzari Named Bronze Medal Finalist in the Global Music Awards for "The Wayne Song"

LOS ANGELES, CA – October 2026 – Independent recording artist Dea Lazzari has been named a Bronze Medal Finalist in the Global Music Awards for her latest release, "The Wayne Song."

Los Angeles, California Nov 2, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - The recognition highlights Dea Lazzari's growing presence within the international independent music community and celebrates her expressive vocal style, emotional storytelling, and artistic authenticity.

The Global Music Awards honor musicians from around the world for excellence in creativity, originality, and overall musical impact. Being selected as a Bronze Medal Finalist places Dea Lazzari among a distinguished group of independent artists whose work demonstrates exceptional artistic achievement and continued momentum.

"I'm honored to receive this recognition for 'The Wayne Song,'" said Dea Lazzari. "This track represents a deeply personal moment for me, and I'm grateful that it resonated with the judges."

"The Wayne Song" continues to expand Dea Lazzari's reach across digital streaming platforms while strengthening her connection with listeners who appreciate heartfelt songwriting and meaningful storytelling.

With additional music planned for release later in 2026, Dea Lazzari continues to build her catalog and grow her audience worldwide.

About Dea Lazzari

Dea Lazzari is an Italian singer-songwriter and vocal artist from Milan, now based in Los Angeles. Known for her expressive and versatile vocal style, she draws inspiration from soul, funk, pop, and jazz.

She is currently developing her original music project in collaboration with acclaimed American producer, keyboardist, and songwriter Wayne Vaughn, whose credits include Earth, Wind & Fire, The Brothers Johnson, and Aretha Franklin. Her international career includes performing alongside Stevie Wonder and continues to expand through original recordings, collaborations, and live performances that connect with audiences around the world.

Dea Lazzari was recently named a Finalist in the Global Music Awards, recognizing her continued artistic achievement and contribution to contemporary music.

Website: https://dealazzari.com
Instagram: @dealazzari

Media Contact

Stage Apparent

@stageapparent.com

888-777-2109

1968 S. Coast Hwy.

https://stageapparent.com

Source : Dea Lazzari

See on IssueWire